

Strobe Lights

These are inexpensive, battery-operated strobes mounted to brackets on each wing tip . The strobes have several blinking modes and a mode for color (white, red, green). The batteries are recharged using a USB cable and last about 4 hours before recharging is needed. The strobes make it a lot easier to be seen by other aircraft even in daylight.